

Weaving Applications into the Network Fabric

The Transformational Challenge

11-14 October 2010, Berlin, Germany

ICIN 2010 approved by the IEEE Communications Society for technical co-sponsorship

ICIN 2010 to be held on October 11-14, 2010, in Berlin, Germany, is pleased to report the conference has been approved by the IEEE Communications Society for technical co-sponsorship. The ICIN 2010 conference proceedings will be published (electronically) within the IEEE Conference Publications Program and individual papers will be indexed within the IEEE Xplore digital library.

Prospective authors have just three weeks left to submit their extended abstracts for ICIN 2010 through the EDAS (<http://edas.info/doc/authors.html>) manuscript registration and submission system. Extended abstracts should be submitted electronically through EDAS at <http://edas.info/N8600>.

ICIN is a forum covering telecoms and web services and service architectures from both technical and business perspectives. ICIN focuses attention on the interplay between web and telecom technologies, services and players, and end users.

ICIN 2010 will focus on new applications formed by weaving together emerging network capabilities, computational power, network and customer data, and content in valuable new and different patterns.

** NEW ** For ICIN 2010 extended abstracts are invited for three presentation categories:

1. Technical Paper Sessions - the core of ICIN, constituting at least 80% of the programme
2. Work in Progress Sessions - shorter contributions that report on work still in progress at the time of submission of the extended abstract
3. Demonstration Sessions - 'enhanced poster sessions' with the ability to present multimedia demonstrations

The ICIN conference programmes are created by an independent committee of industry experts from papers submitted by leading strategists, engineers and researchers from industry, academia and government. A rigorous peer review process guarantees a cutting edge conference programme free of hype.

Submission deadline: 23 April 2010

Notification of paper acceptance by: 25 May 2010

You will find instructions and additional information on our web site at <http://www.icin.biz>. If you have any questions on topics, content or the selection process, please contact cfp@icin.biz.
